PARSEC Group, PointSecure form Strategic Alliance to Deliver Auditing and Security Services

PARSEC Group to Bundle PointSecure Solutions in Remote Systems Management service

HOUSTON – July 22, 2008 – Today, PointSecure, a leading provider of security and auditing solutions for OpenVMS systems, announced a strategic alliance with PARSEC Group, a full-service training, support, and consulting company for OpenVMS, Tru64 UNIX, HPUX, AIX, Linux, and Microsoft products. By integrating PointSecure solutions into their Remote Systems Management services, PARSEC Group customers can be confident that their OpenVMS systems are secured by premier security products from PointSecure.

“The OpenVMS expertise at PARSEC Group is unmatched,” said Nick Futter, vice president of Channel Development at PointSecure. “This is a unique partnership providing customers with an enhanced offering including software, services and training for their OpenVMS security and compliance needs.”

Highly recommended by HP, PointSecure solutions will provide the PARSEC Group’s clients with the service they need to help prevent external and internal security threats in OpenVMS while ensuring compliance with corporate security policies and governmental regulations such as HIPAA, GLBA and BS779.

“We are very familiar with the PointSecure solutions. They provide unmatched security solutions for OpenVMS systems,” said Wayne Sauer, president of PARSEC Group “We will be using these products as part of our Remote Systems Management service to provide a better service and value to our OpenVMS customer base.”
